HILLTOP FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE MEETS

Routine business was transacted at the meeting of the Hilltop Friendship Circle, conducted by Mrs. Marian S. Hatton, president. The invocation was given by Mrs. Marjorie H. Wilson, chaplain. On Tuesday the group will have a picnic at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Winslow.

Posters advertising Ye Hilltop Bazaar on August 15th have been made by Mrs. Mary Hammond. Members worked on articles for the sale.

A refrigerator has been purchased for the use of the Circle. Eleven Circle members attended Quaker Preparative Meeting at Long Plain Meeting House on Wednesday. Luncheon was served by Long Plain members. The next Preparative meeting will be held at the Mattapoisett Meeting House in October.

BISHOP TO VISIT ST. PHILIP'S ON SUNDAY

The Rt. Rev. Frederic C. Lawrence, Suffragan Bishop of Eastern Massachusetts, will preach at the 10 A.M. service at St. Philip's Episcopal Chapel on Sunday, July 30th. There will be

AMBULANCE FUND DRIVE

A meeting of the Mattapoisett Ambulance Fund Drive was held on Thursday, July 20th, in the Fire Station Hall. It was announced that $1205.00 has already been donated to the fund.

Collection boxes are in all local places of business and donations are being collected on band concert night, Record Hop and Square Dance nights. The Old Timers' Baseball game was played at Center School on Sunday for the benefit of the drive. A house-to-house canvas will take place the first week in August in order to obtain more money.

All contributions should be sent to: Mr. Anthony Roderick, Tobey Lane, Mattapoisett.

MATTAPOISETT NURSING HOME

The Mattapoisett Nursing Home, formerly known as the Elmcrest Convalescent Home, is now under the management of its new owner, Mrs. Elizabeth R. Turcotte. Mrs. Turcotte was trained in nursing and graduated from the King Edward VII Research Hospital in Birmingham, England and worked there during the war years. Since that time, Mrs. Turcotte has been associated with the York Hospital in York, Maine and the Portsmouth Hospital in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, having served in the surgical and medical departments in both hospitals.

For the past nine years, Mrs. Turcotte has been active in the nursing home field specializing in the care of convalescent, chronic and geriatric patients and for the last four of these years was managing supervisor of one of the largest and most modern nursing homes in Plymouth County, the Mildred Alford Nursing Home in Abington.

In addition to alterations and new equipment, the new nursing home will feature many modern innovations for better service

A TRIP INTO TIME

One of the early Mattapoisett churches has been restored and repainted to almost original condition. The narrow, stiff backed pews that once held congregations of strong and hearty people, citizens of the bustling ship building town of Mattapoisett, are now empty but what a tale they could tell of birth, growing up, marriage and the flow and the ebb of life in a town. The old church fittingly does speak. The Mattapoisett Historical Society has gathered bits and pieces of Old Mattapoisett. The treasures and the tools of the people who sat here are now on display here. Throughout the summer, in this Historical Society museum, this collection will be shown. Those who love this town will find pictures of its early days and so be able to trace its growth. There are logs from whale ships which were manned and sailed by Mattapoisett men. Tools used in the building of these strong wooden hulls and guns and swords by local sailors and soldiers, sextants corroded by were ordinary to them, are treasured by us. On the long whaling voyages, years in length, moments of leisure were spent in labor of love. With great patience and artistry the sailors carved bits of whale tooth and bone with their clumsy knives. Scrimshaw work of delicacy and beauty for the women at home were turned out bit by bit, scrape by scrape. Pie crimpers, wool holders, inlaid jewelry boxes, sewing boxes in scrimshaw tell of the thoughts of men longing for home, for Mattapoisett, Rochester, Marion and New Bedford.

When you feel you want a change of pace, when you want to use your imagination, when you want to see this town as a young and courageous place, visit this old church on the corner of Church and Baptist Streets. The Historical Society is open on Tuesday through Saturday from 3 to 5, and on Wednesday evening from 7 to 9.

THE MATTAPOISETT NURSING HOME
(FORMERLY ELMCREST)
NORTH STREET, MATTAPOISETT

Serving the Mattapoisett, Marion and Rochester Area

Open under the direction of the new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Turcotte.

Our new expansion and modernization program is well under way. Private, Semi-Private and Ward beds will all become available by the end of this week, with increased facilities for the care and comfort of our guests.

This nursing home offers expert twenty-four hour professional nursing services, excellent food with attention to special diet needs, and cool, airy rooms in one of Mattapoisett's finest residential areas.

Visitors from church groups or interested private individuals are welcome at all times, and this is appreciated both by us and the senior citizens who make their home with us. Visiting hours are from 2-4 in the afternoon and 6-8 p.m., but the home is open for inspection at all times.

We would like to thank the residents of Mattapoisett for the welcome given us since our arrival, and for the courtesy and encouragement shown us by the town officials, business and professional men of this area.

For information regarding present and future vacancies, Call MRS. ELIZABETH R. TURCOTTE at SKyline 8-2512.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen E. Saunders of Marion Road, Rochester announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Warren J. Surette, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Ernest Surette of 46 Washington Street, Reading. Mr. Surette is a graduate of Lawrence Academy, Groton and is a senior at Northeastern University.

ENLISTED IN AIR FORCE

Allen Cameron Sherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sherman of County Road, Rochester, has enlisted in the Air Force and is presently taking his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. Prior to his departure he was feted at a party held at his home with over 35 relatives, friends and classmates present. Allen received many gifts including a purse of money. Refreshments were served buffet style by Mrs. Sherman. A decorated cake highlighted the refreshment table.

During the week Allen was a guest of several persons who took him out to dinner.

A 1961 graduate of New Bedford High School, Allen is an active member of the Youth Fellowship of Advent Christian Church and Explorer Post 36.
